(Columbus, OH) – Michelle Heritage was honored with a C-Suite Award from Columbus Business First as one of the most-admired executives in Central Ohio in 2019. Honorees were selected through a private vote among their fellow C-Suite nominees.

The C-Suite Awards recognize Central Ohio's most accomplished business leaders with an emphasis on those who inspire and encourage their peers and are shining examples of integrity and excellence. Heritage was honored in the nonprofit organization category, following more than 30 years in leadership roles in the homeless system, mental health, child welfare, and the alcohol and drug systems. She has served as executive director of Community Shelter Board since 2010.

All the 2019 honorees were celebrated at an awards gala on September 26 at the Hyatt Regency ballroom downtown.

Community Shelter Board leads a coordinated, community effort to make sure everyone has a place to call home. The Columbus and Franklin County community has counted on Community Shelter Board for more than 30 years as a key component of a strong civic infrastructure and to help safeguard its most vulnerable neighbors. With the support of a compassionate community, our system of care served 15,000 people last year with homelessness prevention, shelter, street outreach, rapid re-housing, and permanent supportive housing.

Community Shelter Board is funded by the City of Columbus, the Franklin County Board of Commissioners, the United Way of Central Ohio, The Columbus Foundation, Nationwide Foundation, American Electric Power Foundation, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the State of Ohio, and many other public and private investors.
