Benefiting Community Shelter Board

Jo Ann Davidson Theatre, Vern Riffe Center June 9, 2020 5:30 p.m.

Inspiring ideas. Igniting change.

Under One Roof is Community Shelter Board's signature fundraising event to spark discussion about critical social problems and shed light on innovative solutions – so that everyone has a place to call home.

Thanks to generous funders and phenomenal speakers, our first three years for Under One Roof were a huge success. CSB is developing a track record of inviting some of today's most notable thought-leaders on issues of affordable housing, workforce development, and poverty to speak at Under One Roof. In 2017, we featured Matthew Desmond, who gave a compelling talk about eviction. In 2018, Kathryn Edin and H. Luke Shaefer discussed their remarkable book, $2.00 a Day: Living on Almost Nothing in America. In 2019, Mia Birdsong inspired us into action with her message on the promise of our collective vitality.

Corporate sponsors, individual donors, local elected officials, policy-makers, and industry and community leaders continue to turn out for Under One Roof and join the community discussions we spark. We expect to have more than 850 people join us to raise funds and celebrate our community's collective impact toward rebuilding the lives of those experiencing homelessness.

About This Year's Speaker: Sheryl WuDunn

In 2020, Under One Roof benefiting Community Shelter Board will feature Sheryl WuDunn, best-selling author and the first Asian-American reporter to win a Pulitzer Prize.

With her husband, Nicholas D. Kristof, Ms. WuDunn is co-author of Tightrope: Americans Reaching for Hope, which chronicles the different struggles facing working-class America. They also co-authored A Path Appears: Transforming Lives, Creating Opportunity, a New York Times best-selling book about altruism and how to bring about change in our society using evidence-based strategies; and Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide, a No. 1 New York Times best-selling book about the challenges facing women around the globe.

Ms. WuDunn co-founded FullSky Partners, a consulting firm focusing on double-bottom line ventures in new media, technology and healthcare services. She is also a venture partner at Piedmont Partners Group Ventures, which invests in growth companies in the U.S.

Previously, Ms. WuDunn has been vice president in the investment management division at Goldman, Sachs & Co. and a commercial loan officer at Bankers Trust. She is also one of a small handful of people who have worked at The New York Times both as an executive and journalist: in management roles in both the strategic planning and circulation sales departments at The Times; as editor for international markets, energy and industry; as The Times's first anchor of an evening news headlines program for a digital cable TV channel, the Discovery-Times; and as a foreign correspondent for The Times in Tokyo and Beijing, where she wrote about economic, financial, political and social issues.

Community Shelter Board works to make sure everyone has a place to call home. We are the community's collective impact organization driving strategy, accountability, collaboration, and resources to achieve the best outcomes for people facing homelessness in Columbus and Franklin County.

We bring together 16 agencies across the community to work together as a cohesive system for change. With the support of a compassionate community, our system of care served 15,000 people last year with homelessness prevention, shelter, street outreach, rapid re-housing, and permanent supportive housing.
